

ERICA CHAVEZ

Erica Chavez is an associate at BD&J and serves as the firm's Marketing Director. Erica directs media relations, branding, advertising, website development, external communications and client relationship support. She also manages and oversees sponsorships, events, charitable contributions and marketing training for all BD&J brands.

Erica has more than 14 years' experience in personal injury matters. Prior to joining BD&J, she worked at a well-respected personal injury law firm where she served as the firm's general manager and manager of catastrophic and very serious personal injury cases. After law school, Erica joined BD&J and focused her efforts on serious and catastrophic injury matters. Shortly thereafter, Erica developed the Marketing Department at BD&J.

Erica earned her Juris Doctor from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, California. While in law school, she received several awards and recognition for her academic excellence. She received the Cali and Witkin awards for earning the top grade in her classes, served on the board of several honors societies and clubs, worked as a teaching assistant for evidence contracts and torts, and researched and edited for a professor who focused on gender equality in the legal profession. Erica continues to be involved at Southwestern, where she has served as a guest speaker and lecturer.

Erica is admitted to practice in all California State Courts.
