

Shannon Swick is a limited licensed psychologist with over 25 years of experience working with adult and children with traumatic brain injury in residential, day treatment, school and home based settings. Her areas of expertise include Applied Behavior Analysis, outcomes management and program development. Shannon and her colleagues have published numerous articles on outcomes with neurologically impaired populations. Shannon currently serves as Chief Development Officer for Learning Services. She was previously Vice President of Clinical and Operations for Rehab Without Walls.